INDIANAPOLIS, IN -- OCTOBER 6, 2009 – According to business leader Jim Rohn, "You are the average of the five people you spend the most time with." The Skyline Club's At The Top networking event presents Indianapolis business professionals the opportunity to "up their average" so to speak.

At The Top is a 6-month networking program in a highly interactive, personalized format geared toward business people at the top of their game. The series will be held once a month, November through May, with no event in December. The event is open to all business professionals aspiring to be at the top of their game who are interested in networking with other upper echelon business people.

The kickoff event will be held Wednesday, November 18, 5:30 – 7:30 pm at the Skyline Club in Indianapolis. Each event will be open and informal, featuring cocktails and conversation, and showcasing an Indianapolis business leader who has not only reached, but surpassed the top.

"At The Top provides successful business people a unique opportunity to network with others at the top of their game," says Jeff Markowicz, Skyline Club General Manager. "It truly is networking at a higher level."

In today's tough business environment, only the strong survive; and what makes a business professional strong is the network of people he or she surrounds himself with. At The Top was created to give Indianapolis business professionals the opportunity to intensify and expand their business networks. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet prominent business leaders and socialize with other exceptional professionals.

According to Markowicz, "We understand that when people attend At The Top, they will be building relationships which will grow their business, and growing their business will grow the Indianapolis economy. It's a win-win-win situation."

To address the current economy throughout the state of Indiana, the registration fee for the At The Top networking event has been kept extremely affordable. Single event registration is $35, or $150 for the entire 6-month series. Skyline Club members will receive a discounted rate.

Registration is on a limited, first come basis and business people are encouraged to act quickly. Reservations can be made by calling the Skyline Club at 317-263-5000. Additional information is available at the At The Top website at <http://www.AtTheTopNetworking.com>.
