Indianapolis, IN -- NOVEMBER 13, 2009 – Indianapolis area small business professionals now have a unique opportunity to strategize with Bingham McHale attorneys during a 60 minute strategy session on November 18. The off the books strategy session, entitled "Pitfalls on the Road to the Top", is being held in conjunction with the Skyline Club's "At The Top" event.

During the session, Bingham McHale attorneys will discuss many of the risks business professionals face as they grow their business and careers, and outline steps to be taken in order to alleviate vulnerabilities and avoid exposure. The session will be directed by attorneys Dan Boots, John Daniluck, Jeremy Hill and Matt Schantz.

As one of the largest law firms in the state of Indiana, Bingham McHale understands that emerging businesses have difficulty overcoming early mistakes and missed opportunities. The strategy session is designed to address these unique needs, such as raising capital, protecting intellectual property, hiring and keeping qualified staff amongst others. The Bingham McHale attorneys will provide business advice to help emerging professionals avoid the pitfalls and take advantage of all available opportunities.

"This is a great chance for business professionals to have a conversation with Indy's most elite legal minds without the attorney fees that usually go with it," says Jeff Markowicz, Skyline Club General Manger. "There's no other place where professionals can sit down, face to face, with these at the top attorneys and get this kind of personalized advice. It's all part of our effort to bring together the most influential business leaders with up and coming professionals in an attempt to build relationships, grow businesses and spur on the Indiana economy. "

The Bingham McHale strategy session begins at 4:30 pm on Wednesday, November 18, and is open to all attendees of the Skyline Club's "At The Top" networking event. "At The Top" is a 6-event business networking series presented by the Skyline Club of Indianapolis. It is designed to bring together prominent business leaders with other professionals desiring to reach the top of their game in a personal, relationship-building atmosphere.

"At The Top" is open to the business public with advanced reservations. Reservations can be made at the "At The Top" website at <http://www.AtTheTopNetworking.com> or by calling the Skyline Club at 317-263-5000.
